BRUTAL ASSAULT ON AGED FARMER

Feeling in North Garden Neighborhood at High Pitch, and Violence Is Feared.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., May 25.—Marcus Durrett, of North Garden, a member of the County Democratic Committee, and one of the most prominent farmers of Albemarle county, was brutally assaulted last evening by Richard Hudson, who runs the Southern Railway pump-house at North Garden.

Hudson, it is said, was crazed with drink, and imagined that he had a grievance against Durrett, who, for years had boarded with Mrs. Hudson. He went to the barn, where Mr. Durrett was looking after the feed. With a piece of brass he struck Mr. Durrett in the face and knocked him down. Mr. Durrett, who is about eighty years of age, was too feeble to protect himself, and he made no attempt to resist. He was rendered completely senseless and left for dead. A half hour after the assault the aged farmer recovered consciousness and made his way to his office in North Garden, where he was attended by Dr. Hunter Williams, his nephew. It was found that Mr. Durrett's nose and cheek bones were broken, and that he was badly cut about the eyes and mouth. Several bones of his head were broken.

Mr. Durrett's condition was so serious this morning that he was brought at once to the University Hospital, in this city, for treatment. He was accompanied by Dr. Williams and his niece, Mrs. Phil Jones.

Hudson disappeared from the North Garden neighborhood last night, and has not as yet been located. Feeling in the neighborhood is at a high pitch, and it is feared that violence is imminent. Officers are in eager pursuit, and if he should be located he will be brought to Charlottesville for safekeeping.

I hope you will publish my letter so that others may learn of Cuticura's merits and be cured of their skin troubles. I bought about two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and five cakes of Cuticura Soap in all, and after a few days I was entirely cured of the itching and burning. My eczema was entirely cured, all due to using Cuticura Soap and Ointment daily. Hereafter I will never be without a cake of Cuticura Soap on my washstand.
